Introduction

Research suggests that the most effective people are those who understand themselves, both their strengths and weaknesses, so they can develop strategies to meet the demands of their environment.

An individual's talents and personal skills are a fundamental and integral part of who they are.

In this report we are measuring three dimensions of thought. They are:

- Intrinsic - People
- Extrinsic - Tasks or things
- Systemic - Systems

This report analyzes talents; that is, a person's ability to do things. Is the report 100% true? Yes, no and maybe. As you review your report, please determine which items are job related. This will give you insight as to where to begin development.

World View

This is how Jenny sees the world around her. This view measures her clarity and understanding of people, tasks and systems. It could also be looked at in terms of feeling, doing and thinking from an external standpoint. The statements below are based primarily on the 3 dimensions on the left side of the dimensional balance page and are in a random order.

- Jenny performs best in an environment where responsibilities and decisions are shared, and her input and creativity is appreciated and challenged on a regular basis.
- She performs best in an atmosphere where there is an open exchange of ideas and where feedback is readily available.
- She has the ability to use her people skills in order to relate to others.
- She may benefit from gaining a better understanding of people.
- Jenny may benefit from improving her relationships with authority figures.
- She may benefit from making a conscious effort to develop a stronger focus on practical tasks and activities.
- She can be versatile and can adapt to different types of people and changing situations.
- She needs an atmosphere that has structure and a defined chain of command.
- Jenny will attempt to utilize all available resources to achieve the end result.

Self View

This is how Jenny sees herself. This view measures her clarity and understanding of herself, her roles in life and her direction for the future. The internal dimensions are a reflection of her from both personal and professional viewpoints. The statements below are based primarily on the 3 dimensions on the right side of the dimensional balance page and are in a random order.

- Jenny may not have a strong understanding of her current roles and activities.
- She gets involved with new things on a situational basis as long as it fits in with her overall life plan.
- She organizes her life according to a set of standards with which she identifies.
- She may not have complete buy-in to her current roles.
- Jenny has developed a clear picture of where she is going.
- She has a clearly defined set of organizing structures for her life.
- She defines who she is in terms of her direction and goals in life.
- She could benefit from asking herself, "What are my major roles in life?"
- Jenny has a clear understanding of who she is and where she would like to be, but may feel held back by her current roles.

Prospecting

This is the first step of any sale. It is the phase of the sale where prospects are identified, detailed background information is gathered, the physical activity of traditional prospecting is coordinated and an overall strategy for face-to-face selling is developed.

EVALUATING OTHERS - The capacity to objectively assess or measure the abilities and performance of other people.

ROLE CONFIDENCE - The capacity of maintaining confidence and self-reliance for fulfilling various professional and personal roles.

PERSISTENCE - The capacity to steadily pursue any project or goal that a person is committed to in spite of difficulty, opposition or discouragement.

INTUITIVE DECISION MAKING - The capacity to make decisions by looking at the most essential elements and without all the facts or data.

* 68% of the population falls within the shaded area.

Greeting

The first face-to-face interaction between a prospect and the salesperson, this step is designed to enable the salesperson to display her sincere interest in the prospect...to gain positive acceptance and to develop a sense of mutual respect and rapport. It is the first phase of face-to-face trust building and sets the face-to-face selling process in motion.

ATTITUDE TOWARD OTHERS - The general capacity one has for relating with other people.

RELATING TO OTHERS - The capacity to understand and relate to others when communicating with them.

INITIATIVE - The compelling desire to get into the flow of work in order to accomplish the vision and complete the goal.

SENSITIVITY TO OTHERS - The capacity to understand and appreciate the value of other people with genuine concern for their needs, desires and feelings.

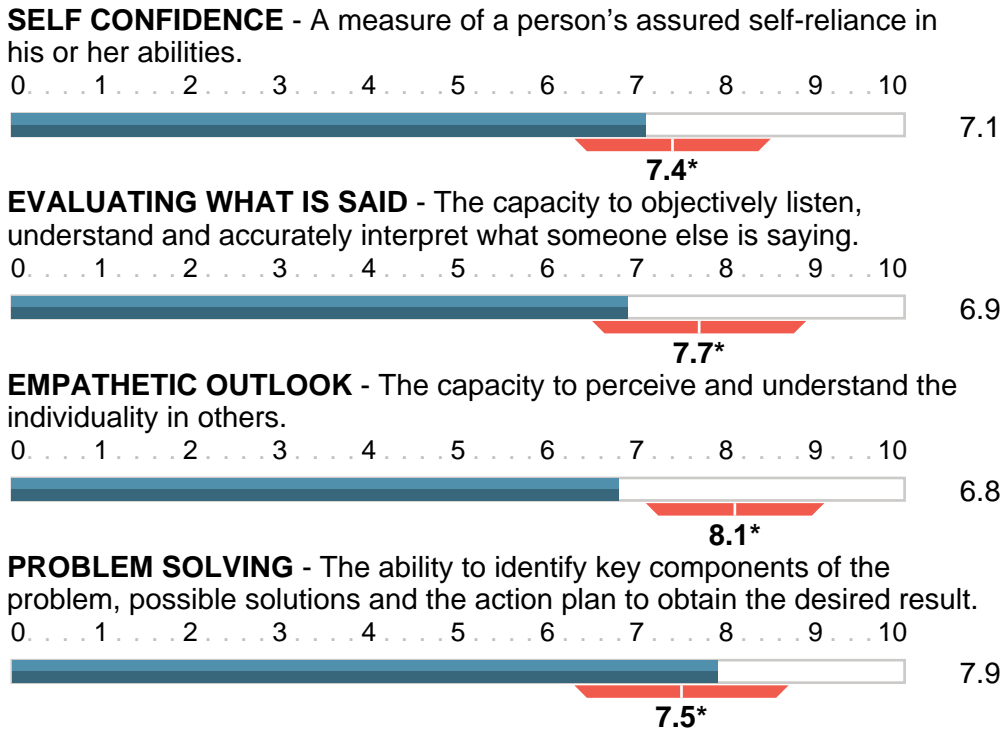

* 68% of the population falls within the shaded area.

Qualifying

The detailed needs analysis phase of the face-to-face sale. This step of the sale enables the salesperson to discover what the prospect will buy, when they will buy and under what conditions they will buy. It is allowing the prospect to identify and verbalize their level of interest, specific wants and detailed needs in the product or service the salesperson is offering.

* 68% of the population falls within the shaded area.

Demonstrating

This step allows the salesperson to present her product knowledge in such a way that it fulfills the stated or implied wants, needs or intentions of the prospect as identified and verbalized in the qualifying phase of the sale.

PROBLEM SOLVING - The ability to identify key components of the problem, possible solutions and the action plan to obtain the desired result.

USING COMMON SENSE - The capacity to be resourceful and apply good, practical, ordinary sense in whatever situations arise.

CONCRETE ORGANIZATION - The capacity to understand essential factors of a situation and bring together all necessary resources.

SENSE OF TIMING - The ability to do the correct thing at the correct time.

* 68% of the population falls within the shaded area.

Influencing

What people believe enough, they act upon. This step is designed to enable the salesperson to build value and overcome the tendency that many prospects have to place little belief or trust in what is told to them. It is this phase of the sale that solidifies the prospect's belief in the supplier, product or service and salesperson.

* 68% of the population falls within the shaded area.

Closing

The final phase is closing. This phase of the sale is asking the prospect to buy, dealing with objections, handling any necessary negotiation and completing the transaction to mutual satisfaction.

SELF CONFIDENCE - A measure of a person's assured self-reliance in his or her abilities.

PERSONAL ACCOUNTABILITY - The capacity to take responsibility for one's own actions, conduct, obligations and decisions without excuses.

EMOTIONAL CONTROL - The ability to appear to be rational and in-control when facing problems or crises.

ATTENTION TO DETAIL - The ability to pay attention to the specific elements, facets or parts of a situation or work assignment.

* 68% of the population falls within the shaded area.
